Sustainable Silicon Valley (SSV) is dedicated to creating collaborative solutions to the toughest sustainability challenges in the Bay Area.
Vision

SSV envisions a Net Positive Bay Area where we:

- Produce more renewable energy than we consume
- Capture more carbon than we emit
- Optimize water resources to ensure water resilience

Dennis Murphy

SSV Water Director
As chair of the SFBay Restoration Authority, chair of the San Mateo Countywide Water Coordination Committee, and a member of the SF Bay Conservation and Development Commission and the San Francisco Creek Joint Powers Authority...

Dave Pine works extensively on the intersecting issues of flood control, sea level rise, and tidal land restoration.
Liccardo calls the combined threat of droughts and floods "one of those very serious but underreported challenges of climate change." If saltwater intrusion continues unabated, he said, it could eventually pollute the freshwater supplies...
